

Library Board

The Kent Public Library Board of Trustees meets the third Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM in the library's program room. Meetings are open to the public.

The Kent Library will be closed the following days:

Mon. Jan. 18th
Mon. Feb. 15th

Friends of Kent Library & Book Nook

The Friends of Kent Library support the library through fundraising, advocacy, and volunteer activities. Be a Friend – pick up an application at the library. Annual dues are just $10. The Friends run the Book Nook and hold annual book sales.

Book Nook Hours:
Wednesday 10:00 to 7:30
Saturday 10:00 to 2:30

Go to www.iGive.com and contribute to the Friends of the Kent Library.

Thank You!!!

Food for Fines was very successful this year thanks to our generous patrons. We were able to donate almost 400 canned food items to the Putnam Community Action Program. They are very grateful for our support in this tough economic time.

We love our Friends!

The Friends of Kent Library generously donated funds to support several of our adult programs and lectures scheduled this summer and fall. Thanks to all of our Friends for their wonderful and generous support!

Kent SeniorNet (Adult Computer Classes)
Are you hesitant about using a computer? Are you intimidated? Perhaps, a simple solution to get connected with the Information Age is to enroll in one of SeniorNet's classes. SeniorNet is a group of adult volunteers who will teach you to use the Internet and useful computer applications, in a gentle atmosphere with coaches at your side, with an easygoing instructor. To enroll in one of the classes, or if you would like to teach, please call 306.5535, a volunteer will return your call.
